IDAHO ALPINE CLUB GENERAL MEETING

"CLIMBING IN THE SHALULI SHAN RANGE"

BRING A FRIEND AND ATTEND

WEDNESDAY, September 2, 2009 ~ 7:30 PM

IDAHO FALLS LIBRARY

The Genyen Massif forms part of the remote Shaluli Shan Range in the Sichuan province of southwestern China on the edge of Tibet. There are no roads into the area and few western visitors have ventured into the 18,000 to 20,000 foot peaks of the Genyen Massif. Three years ago, when all the peaks in the massif except for Mt. Genyen remained unclimbed, Molly Loomis and her husband Andy Tyson joined their friends Dave Anderson from Lander, Wy and Sarah Hueniken from Canmore, Alberta to explore the area. The group, whose three week expedition was financed by a Shipton-Tilman grant from the American Alpine Club, accomplished first ascents of Shachun and Phurpa. While in Sichuan, the group also helped the monks of the 600 year- old Rengo Monastery construct a hostel for visitors which will serve as an ongoing source of financial support for the monastery. Molly and her husband Andy will present a slideshow focusing on the rewarding climbing in this area as well as their cultural interaction with local residents. Molly currently guides Mt. Vinson in Antarctica for Antarctica Logistics and Expeditions and she guides in the Teton Range for Exum Guides. Andy guides for Alpine Ascents International and has guided Cho-Oyu in Tibet and Mt. Vinson.

The meeting is open to the public and all outdoor enthusiasts are invited to attend.

President Speaks

Hey everyone, did you make it to the summer party? It was a great time with good food and great friends. If you missed it try to make it next year. We need to thank a few people that helped make this event a success. Teak and Dan Cummings organized everything supplied the barbeque and did the cooking, and Dave Sealander who let us use the park that has been in his family for a very long time.

Have you noticed the chill in the morning air? Summer is starting to wind down but that isn't necessarily bad thing. There are fewer thunder showers late in the summer. The cooler temperatures are perfect for hiking, climbing, and those long bike rides. You don't need to carry as much water to stay hydrated and the possibility of heat related illness is a lot lower. Don't wait to get those last trips in or you may be trying to do them in the snow. So get out have fun and be safe.

Mark Whitham

Participation on Club Activities Common

Adventure / Trips: With the exception of rafting, Non-members may attend a maximum of two club trips or activities, then must be members in good standing to continue participating.

Participants on rafting trips or rafting rentals must be members in good standing.

Participants on a club trip must pay any established trip fee, abide by club rules and activity guidelines, and must follow instructions of the activity coordinator.

An individual may not participate in any common adventure/trip of the club unless that individual has read and signed the common adventure form for that specific activity prior to embarking on that adventure / trip / activity.

All Trips Bring Your Own:

1. Water
 2. Food/snacks
 3. Dress in layers. Bring adequate extra appropriate protective clothing - no cotton. Hat and gloves or mittens.
 4. Minor first aid items including sun screen, personal medications, as needed during the day.
 5. Headlamp (& Batteries)
 6. Map & Compass
 7. Sunglasses
 8. Lightweight shelter/space blanket.
 9. Appropriate equipment- depending on activity or terrain.
 10. Repair kit for your own equipment including duct tape.
 11. Mat to sit on
- Other personal items of interest

Day Hiking / Backpacking

Fall riding in Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks is great. Less traffic and cooler temps, till the snow flies!!

Rafting

For information on renting club rafting gear (IAC club members only) contact Greg Hulet At 523-6199 or rafting@idahoalpineclub.org.

For trip information contact the trip leader indicated in the trip description. You MUST be an IAC member to participate in IAC raft trips.

Rafting: April - November: Call to arrange Alpine Canyon (class II-III) float trips. Preferred trips would be with participants providing their own boats and equipment (15 max total).

I can sometimes accommodate 1-4 people needing equipment. Note: Saturday's are very busy. Week day afternoons or Sundays work best. (Jim Lee 208 569-5573) Note: Saturday's are very busy. Week day afternoons or Sundays work best.

Alpine Canyon Group Size Limits:

For those planning to take a group to Alpine Canyon the following rules apply. You will be ticketed if you are caught breaking them:

1. Maximum party size with no permit is 15. If your party is 15 people or less, no other limits apply, including the four boat limit.
2. Organizational trips only apply to groups with a paid leader (Some outdoor programs, Youth Minister, etc.).

Rafting Gear Available to Rent to IAC Members Only:

Caribou-Targhee Maps on Line

Most of the Palisades and Teton Ranger District color topographic maps on the Caribou-Targhee National Forest web site have been revised to reflect trail number, trail route and trail use changes. Many of the Palisades district trails have been recently GPSed and so the maps are now considerably more accurate. There are 11 maps at a scale of 1:112,500 covering both ranger districts and 13 more detailed maps (hiking scale, 1:50,000) covering popular trails. All maps are Acrobat format and can be printed at home.

Run For A Position on the IAC Council

Hurry and sign up to run for a council position. If you are a current member of the Idaho Alpine Club and have decided you would like to run for council this year, please contact Mark Whitham to find out what is entailed or take a look at the club bylaws on the website for more information about the council positions.
