4) Old Business:

IAC 50th Anniversary Party

Barbara Brown indicated she will provide slides of early Alpine Club events at the summer IAC picnic. Council members will be asking other long term members for slides to show.

IAC 50th Anniversary news article

Sam Pole is working on a newspaper article in the Post Register to highlight 50 years of IAC activities. He will provide a list of club members for possible interviews in the article.

IAC post office retrieval

Donna Whitham will pursue getting at least one alternative name on the Alpine Club post office box to pick up the club's mail when Jeff Coward or Donna Whitham are unable to.

5) New Business:

Representing the Access Fund Organization

Sam Pole has been contacted by Bruce Anderson requesting that the IAC support the American Alpine Club in their protest of the climbing ban at Castle Rocks. Apparently, Native American Indians claim that climbers damage their sacred spots. Sam Pole agreed to email Bruce for a copy of the AAC letter of protest. The council members agreed to review the letter written by AAC before sending our own letter of support.

New Business cont.

Text Link for Climbing Gear Inc.

Sam Pole was also contacted by Darron Robbins of Climbing Gear Inc., ph. 800-592-9172.

Mr. Robbins offered wholesale prices on their climbing gear in return for a text link on the IAC webpage. Council members voted unanimously to have George Cole check this company out for mal ware.

Reorder IAC tri-folds

Donna Whitham stated that we are totally out of tri-folds advertising the IAC. The Council members unanimously agreed to order another 100 to distribute to the Chamber of Commerce and Idaho Mountain Trading.
