4) Old Business:

"President Speaks" Assignment for May and June IAC Bulletins

Sue Braastad wrote a "President Speaks" blog for the May bulletin and Sheila Kappel wrote one for the June bulletin.

Bonneville County Tax on Idaho Alpine Club Personal Property

Donna Whitham stated that she had not received word back from the Bonneville County Tax Commission in answer to the property tax exemption that she sent in earlier. She did mention that this tax would be repealed in the 2014 Legislature.

Revision of Idaho Alpine Club Trifolds

Donna said she would send the latest revision of the IAC tri-folds to Sam Pole and Ken Durstine to critique. She will bring them to the next IAC council meeting for all the members to look over.

5) New Business:

Up-coming Idaho Alpine Club Outings

Ken Durstine will be organizing mountain bike rides, probably beginning with a ride at Harriman Park in May (date to be determined later). He told Donna he will be sending her his bike plans and dates for the bulletin. The council members discussed that Ken Krivanek is working in New York again, and will not be available to schedule outdoor hikes this summer.
