4) Old Business:

Recognition at Banff Film Festival

Clark Kido sent the IAC a thank you note for the club's help at the Banff Film Festival. Council members had set up a display booth advertising the IAC at the festival.

Parking and Nordic Ski Problems at Kelly Canyon

The Alpine Club will be posting information concerning the restrictions on parking and Nordic Ski grooming at Kelly Canyon. The posting will encourage people to write letters to the forest service and will provide talking points for use in their letters.

5) New Business:

Upcoming Idaho Alpine Club Activities

The spring highway cleanup will be on May 10th. The cleanup will be followed by a no host lunch at the Saddle Sore restaurant, across from the Rainey Creek commissary.

Alan Crockett's Idaho Alpine Club Responsibilities

Sue Braastad asked who would replace Alan Crockett in his IAC responsibilities, since he will be moving to Boise. It was suggested that John Bezel might help. The club is responsible for the Caldera Rim Trail, since we have signed an agreement with the Forest Service. It is located at the top of Ashton hill, near the caldera info sign. Trail markers are removed in the summer at the trailhead, so that people aren't encouraged to take bikes in there. The council will discuss the matter again.
