4) New Business:

Cross-Country, Snow-Shoeing Outdoor Trips

Sam Pole suggested that the activity coordinators need to arrange and announce at least one cross-country and/or snow-shoeing outing each month. Donna Whitham said that she and Mark usually do organize at least two of these outings and announce them in the monthly bulletin.

Climbing Activities

Sam Pole also said he would double check with the climbing group to make sure they include a notice of their indoor climbing activities in the IAC monthly newsletter.

President Speaks Article in IAC Bulletin

Sam brought up the idea of all council members taking part in the "President Speaks" article in the IAC monthly bulletins. He decided that he would write the article every other month and the other council members would take turns writing one on the alternate months. Susan McKinley offered to write the article for the February bulletin.
