Advertising Idaho Alpine Club in The Post Register

The council members discussed advertising the Idaho Alpine Club and its activities in the Post Register. Karl Bohan offered to call the Register to determine the price of a small ad to help boost membership.

Reminders for Renewals of Idaho Alpine Club Memberships

Donna Whitham reported to the council that she has been sending out emails to previous Idaho Alpine Club members who have not renewed their membership for 2015. Since many members have changed their emails, the council will be dividing up the lists of names at a later date to make calls to members to remind them to renew their memberships.

Idaho Alpine Club Display Stand at the Idaho Falls "Earth Day"

Sue Braastad brought up the idea of manning a display stand representing the IAC at the Idaho Falls "Earth Day" event. She said she would be willing to work at the stand most of the day on April 25, from 10:00a.m. to 3:00p.m., but needed volunteers to give her a break. Susan McKinley said she would be willing to help from 10:00-12:00. The council members discussed who else might be available and what types of displays would be of interest. Donna Whitham mentioned that displaying all the equipment needed for backpacking would be helpful and Susan mentioned that some type of art for the kids would be fun. The council also discussed having someone display how a bike should fit its rider. The council will discuss further ideas at the next council meeting.
