Revision of Idaho Alpine Club Trifolds

Donna Whitham said that the new IAC tri-folds were completed and ready to go to the printer this week.

"President Speaks" Assignment for April IAC Bulletin

Susan McKinley sent in her blog for the August bulletin and Sam Pole will be writing one for the September bulletin.

Idaho Alpine Club Summer Picnic Planning.

Sam Pole said he will be picking up the meats, plates, napkins, etc. for the picnic. Sue Braastad will be buying the drinks. As for prizes, Bill's Bicycle shop will offer prizes and Great Harvest will provide a basket, which Susan will pick up. Sheila Kappel said she would discuss with her husband about their Preparedness Store providing prizes, as well as asking owners of the Snow Eagle. Donna said she will be calling several places for donations, such as Idaho Mountain Trading. Sue Braastad said she needs more tables and possibly a canopy. She will let the council know what she needs.

Idaho Alpine Club Council Officer Drive

The council members decided to canvas new IAC members at the picnic and encourage them to run for council officer positions for next year.

Upcoming Idaho Alpine Club Outings

Donna said she talked to Ken about his upcoming mountain bike trips. He will let her know what he has planned. Sam said he will start working on the August hiking trips.

5) New Business:

Payment For "Go Daddy" As Server For The Idaho Alpine Club

Donna mentioned that George Cole, our webmaster, has been paying the fee for Go Daddy for the Idaho Alpine Club. The yearly cost with the 25% discount was $80.91. Prior, it was $ 8.99 per month for 9 months, making the total reimbursement due to George $161.82. Donna said that next year we might use facebook, if they start using PDF files.
