4) Old Business:

IAC 50th Anniversary Picnic

Al Jantz has confirmed August 4, 2010 with SeaLander Park for the IAC picnic. It will be available at 5 p.m. to set things up. The club will be sending the $50.00 deposit check to SeaLander once Al receives their mailing address.

Supporting the Access Fund Organization

Sam Pole informed the council members that he has emailed Bruce Anderson regarding the IAC's support of their negotiations on the Hot Potato climbing area ban. The club agrees that this area in Castle Rocks should be open to climbers.

IAC tri-folds

Donna Whitham ordered and received 250 new IAC tri-folds. So far, she has distributed 100 tri-folds to the Chamber of Commerce and 50 to Idaho Mountain Trading.

New Climbing Rope

Al Jantz emailed the council members stating that yes, they need new static rope. He asked all members if he just needs to give the club the receipt.

IAC 50th Anniversary trip

Jeff Coward stated he will get on line to book a weekend in August for the IAC Redfish Lake trip. Council members unanimously agreed that the best weekend would be August 13, 14, and 15th.

5) New Business:

IAC 50th Anniversary Party/Picnic

Sam Pole offered to contact Teak Cummings about her protocol in purchasing food and drinks for the IAC yearly summer picnic. Sam volunteered to purchase the supplies for this year's 50th anniversary picnic.
