4) Old Business:

Advertising Idaho Alpine Club in the Post Register

Karl Bohan contacted the Post Register about placing an IAC advertisement. He was quoted a price of $10 per inch for non-profit organizations on a monthly basis. Sue Braastad asked him to confirm the price of $10 per ad and also request the cost of a 2 by 2 ad (two inches down and two columns across). Karl said he would e-mail the council the information about the ads. At the next meeting, the council will discuss which size of advertisement they prefer and the day it should be placed.

Reminders for Renewals of Idaho Alpine Club Memberships

Donna Whitham said she will email the council the list of names of IAC members who have not renewed as of yet. Each member will be assigned about three people to call.

Idaho Alpine Club Display Stand at the Idaho Falls "Earth Day"

Sue Braastad said that she had signed up the IAC for a stand at the April 25th Earth Day event. At Earth Day, the council will display the IAC tri-fold with pictures of the various events available through the club.

Donna Whitham displayed several "outdoor" coloring pages she printed for children to color at the event. She included the IAC list of essentials for outdoor activities on the back side of the pages. Donna offered to print several copies and Sue offered to buy crayons and baskets at the dollar store. Council members offered times during the day they could be available, including: Susan McKinley – 10:00a.m.-12:00; Sue Braastad – most of day; Mark and Donna Whitham – 12:00-1:00 p.m.; Richard Scheerer – 10:00-12:00; Sam Pole – 1:00-3:00; and Bill Beach will call about availability.
