- 4) Old Business:

IAC 50th Anniversary news article

Sam Pole emailed Jerry Painter about entering an article in the Post Register to highlight the 50th anniversary of the Idaho Alpine Club. He will be following up on this article.

Text Link for Climbing Gear Inc.

Due to a mishap with advertising for Climbing Gear, the Idaho Alpine Club unanimously decided that the club will not consider promotional offers unless a local known business entity contacts the club council in person.

The council unanimously decided to provide George Cole with an ongoing membership in lieu of hosting and maintaining the IAC website. Donna Whitham will be returning his $25.00 fee for this year's membership.

Representing the Access Fund Organization

IAC council members reminded Sam Pole to contact Bruce Anderson concerning the American Alpine Club protest letter over the ban of climbing at Castle Rocks.

IAC tri-folds

Donna Whitham stated she will be ordering more IAC tri-folds to distribute at the Chamber of Commerce and Idaho Mountain Trading.

5) New Business:

New Climbing Rope

Al Jantz offered to check with the IAC climbing group to see if they need new static rope.

IAC 50th Anniversary Party/Picnic

Al Jantz also offered to reserve Sealander Park for August 4, 2010 for the IAC annual picnic/50th Anniversary party.

IAC 50th Anniversary trip

Jeff Coward offered to check into dates to reserve the IAC summer 50th Anniversary trip at Redfish Lake. The council members decided it would be best to book this in August.
