4) Old Business:

IAC 50th Anniversary trip

Mark and Donna Whitham will be reserving sites for everyone who calls and confirms attendance to the anniversary trip, scheduled on October 22-24, 2010. They will be picking out the camping sites on Thursday, October 21. The information for each campsite will be posted on the bulletin board at the Bath Rock parking lot.

Recruiting IAC 2011 officers

Six club members have volunteered to run for the four positions available on the 2011 Idaho Alpine Club Council: Karl Bohan, Sue Braastad, Roger Couch, Liz Downing, Susan McKinley, and Sam Pole. The council members whose terms are expiring at the end of this year are: Colleen Bohan, Jeff Coward, Susan McKinley, and Sam Pole. Additionally, Jessica Sweetser volunteered to stand in for her father at the Council meetings.

5) New Business

Coordinator led activities

Sam Pole brought up the fact that many new members are requesting that other club activities be advertised in the monthly bulletin. This pertains to activities such as biking, climbing, and rafting. Jeff Coward mentioned that when he did plan and organize trips, no one ever came. All council members decided to discuss this matter with other activity organizers.

November general meeting

Donna Whitham said she had reserved and paid the $50.00 cleaning fee and donation to The Episcopal Church by the YMCA for the IAC winter party on November 2, 2010. The membership drive and IAC Council elections will be held during this party. All members will be required to bring finger foods or desserts. There will be soft drinks, wine and beer at the party.
