4) Old Business:

Upcoming Idaho Alpine Club Membership Drive Party

Sam Pole booked the bar at Mackenzie River for the IAC membership drive party on November 18, 2015.

Replacement of Idaho Alpine Club Council Members

Donna Whitham said she asked Teak Cummings to request four or five of the climbers to volunteer to be new IAC council members. These names will be added on the ballot for voting during the membership drive party.

5) New Business:

Discontinuing Production of the Idaho Alpine Club Bulletin

The council agreed to discontinue producing the monthly IAC bulletin. Donna Whitham proposed a reduction of membership fees ($20 for single and $25 for family) in lieu of not producing the bulletin. The council unanimously agreed to this decision. The members will be informed at the upcoming membership drive party. The IAC will continue to post general meeting announcements and all activities on the IAC website.

Idaho Alpine Club Constant Contact Technology

The council discussed helpful ways to send out bulk emails to IAC members without attracting spam problems. Sheila Kappel said she would check to see if the club can use a free service using the IAC website. Donna Whitham said she would talk to George Cole about using GoDaddy as a bulk email service.
